

Free Teacher Workshop

When: Saturday, May 20, 2017

Where: Holmes Educational State Forest, (1299 Crab Creek Rd, Hendersonville)

Time: 10am-5pm

Registration: Amy Kinsella

amy.kinsella@ncagr.gov 828-692-0100

Space limited to 25, RSVP required by May 15

 Be engaged in hands-on, outdoor learning and become a Project Learning Tree certified educator (Formal and non-formal educators encouraged to attend)

 Receive a free PLT's PreK-8 Environmental Education Activity Guide, AND Focus on Forest Secondary Module. Each are correlated to national and state academic standards (including language arts, science, social studies, and math).

 Workshop will focus on fire's role in the environment, and the basics of fire ecology. We will discuss the complexities and consequences of forest management decisions related to conservation and preservation objectives.

PLT is an interdisciplinary, hands-on, environmental education program designed for educators of ANY background. PLT uses the forest as a window into nature to help participants gain awareness and knowledge about the world around them.

This workshop will be a six-hour PreK-12 PLT Curriculum Workshop. Participants will receive 0.6 CEUs with optional homework to obtain 1.0 CEU, or 10 hours EE Certification. Sponsored by NC Cooperative Extension Service, NC Forestry Association, the NC Forest Service and the American Forest Foundation.

Directions:

From Hendersonville: Take N. Church St. and turn right onto Kanuga (4mi), Kanuga turns into Crab Creek Rd., follow for another 9.6 miles. Entrance on Left

From Asheville/ then Brevard: Take exit 40 on 26 W, travel 16 miles on NC 280. At the Bio-low/ entrance to Pisgah Nat'l Forest turn left onto 64 E (travel 3.5 miles) to Marathon gas/Penrose, turn right onto Crab Creek Rd (Follow for 5.5 miles). Entrance on right.

Gather and park in main trail access parking lot of State Forest.